Re Consecration of Ammanavaram idol within the premises of the Sri Mahadeveswaraswami temple at Malegal in the Kan Kanballi Taluk

From

The Dy Commr. of the Bangalore D.

No. 142 Dated 12th April 1907.

The Sri Mahadeveswaraswami temple in the Malegal village of the Kan Kanballi Taluk is a Muzrai institution endowed with man lands measuring 30 acres & 31 Guntas yielding an annual income of Rs 299-1-10.

There being no Ammanavaram idol in the temple, the villagers appear to have constructed a small temple within the premises of the Eswara temple by public

In prescription and also got an Annamanavaram idol prepared for consecrating it in the newly built temple. The Dy Commr. solicited sanction & permission being granted to the villagers for consecrating the Annamanavaram idol. Thereupon further enquiry was made of that Officer and he now reports that the Malegal villagers have no objection to the consecration of the idol in the new temple and as regards provision for its future maintenance, he states that the Padilana expenses will be defrayed from the income of the main lands endowed to the temple. As the devotees interested have fixed the 17th April 1907 for consecrating the Annamanavaram idol, the Dy Commr. solicits early orders

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the inhabitants of the Mankankhalli Town have applied for permission to consecrate the image of Sri Ammanavarn in the building erected for the purpose by public subscription in the compound of the Mahadeva Sivaraswami temple in the Malegal village. The Chief Sub Division Officer in forwarding the petition recommends the grant of the permission applied for. I request that Government may be pleased to accord early sanction for the same as the devotees want to have the business done before the close of Magha.
